TRICK EXPOSED TO FOMENT HATE
OF STATE WOMENLetter from Nonpartisan League
Headquarters Asks for Resolutions

AGAINST MISS NIELSON

She is Called Tool of Capitalists,
Grain Gamblers in Vicious
Attack

A trick to stir up hatred against Miss Minnie J. Nielson, state superintendent of instruction, was exposed here today.

Several days ago Miss Nielson received a resolution signed by a small number of people, condemning her for statements she was alleged to have made in a speech in Minneapolis. The petition was adopted at meeting of a woman's Nonpartisan club.

The secret of the start of the resolution was revealed when by mistake a letter from Nonpartisan league headquarters in North Dakota was sent in with a resolution. The letter accompanied a resolution which the woman's Nonpartisan club were asked to sign and send to Miss Nielson.

The effort apparently has met with signal failure. Less than 10 resolutions have come to Miss Nielson and most of them contain but a few names. The letter to the clubs asking endorsement of the resolution is so vicious that it is believed to have been too much for women of North Dakota to endorse. In it Miss Nielson is accused of having told the people of Minneapolis that the farmers and workers of North Dakota were not nationalizing or preparing to nationalize their women.

She also is accused to supporting grain gamblers and obeying mandates of capitalists.

Reaction Follows
Friends of Miss Nielson declare that such vicious and untruthful attacks react to her credit. She never mentioned the words "free love" in the Minneapolis speech they say. She has made the open statement that she is not fighting members of the Nonpartisan league but is fighting against socialism in the schools.

Miss Nielson's father was a pioneer farmer of North Dakota, having farmed in the state since 1880 and now owning a farm and operating it. He was the originator of the open wheat market bill for farmers.

The new attack on Miss Nielson follows the same tactics followed two years ago when Neil C. McDonald made his vicious attack upon her. At that time Miss Nielson was accused of being alternately a candidate of grain gamblers, pink tea society women and the hook trust. The qualifications of Miss Nielson were attacked which was answered by the Nonpartisan supreme court which found her qualified for four years of college and extensive teaching and executive experience.

From League Office
The letter which was sent out to women with the resolutions they were asked to adopt and sign is on stationery of "The National Federation of Women's Nonpartisan Clubs North Dakota branch," and is signed by Rose McDonald, state secretary. The circular letter addressed to presidents of women's Nonpartisan clubs follows in part:

Enclosed you will find a set of resolutions which we are requesting each club to sign and send direct to Miss Nielson as a denunciation of the stand she has taken against our state and people in her speeches in Minnesota.

Miss Nielson has told the people of Minneapolis that the farmers and workers of North Dakota are Free Lovers and were nationalizing or preparing to nationalize their women. We women are workers, and therefore when Miss Nielson denounces the North Dakota government as immoral she is hitting us. She wants to hit us as she is with the Grain Gamblers and others who are fighting the Farmers and Workers in Minnesota.

After declaring that the Nonpartisan league strengthened her office, Neil McDonald had found her the letter declares she wants additional power so that she may obey the mandates of the capitalists of the Twin Cities. Because the people of North Dakota refuse to grant her these additional powers she retreats to Minneapolis to tell her associates that we must truly be all Bolsheviks. We do not state what she reports to the Minneapolis Masters, but we refuse to be classed as Free-Lovers, Bolsheviks, etc.

The club women are asked to send the resolutions to Miss Nielson and to crush out this new menace before it has a chance to cause contention in our ranks.

The letter is filled with untruth from start to finish so blatant that the letter is ridiculous. Miss Nielson's friends say:

SHALL PUBLIC
HAVE CHECK ON ITS OWN CASH?This is Question Put to Them in First of Initiated
Measures

A BUSINESS PRINCIPLE

Editor's Note:—This is the first of a series of articles discussing the important initiated measures to be voted upon by the people at the general election Nov. 2.

Shall the people of North Dakota allow millions of dollars to be spent without an accounting?

This in brief is the question before the people in the first of the five initiated measures to be voted on November 2.

This initiated measure is styled "Examination of State Industries. It does not affect their continuation nor method of management or change a policy. It merely provides that if millions of dollars are spent in state industries that there shall be an accounting.

From time immemorial governments national and local have protected their public treasures by requiring strict accounting. North Dakota does this in most of her departments. There is in addition a check to state bills, there is a senator and deputies to check county and state officials.

Why Oppose It?
Mr. Townley's newspapers in speakers ask people to vote against this measure. Yet the measure is simply putting into effect in new dress the old measure of the state government policy that has been observed since the adoption of checking public officials. No man who handles money or a public concern expects to do so without being checked. No business man permits his money to be handled without an accounting.

It is argued by some people that this initiated measure is not needed because the law under which the bank of North Dakota was established provides for an examination of the bank. That law is true, provides a cursory examination of the bank and no examination is provided for other industries such as the Home Builders association, Mill and Elevator association, Workmen's or pension bureau, etc.

Joker in Law.
There is a joker in the bank examination law which prevents the state examiner from examining the liabilities of the Bank of North Dakota. He can only examine the assets the law says. In his possession and under its control. And this examiner is appointed by the Governor who also is chairman of the commission charged with administering the bank of North Dakota.

MILITARY AT FUNERAL

British Guard Fitzgerald Hearse,
Causing Deep Resentment
Among Irish

Cork, Oct. 19.—The condition of the Irish hunger strikers in Cork jail has become worse as the result of depression caused by the death Sunday of Michael Fitzgerald, first of the 11 to succumb.

Joseph Murphy, who was very low Monday, has rallied, as the result of medical treatment but his case is still regarded as the most critical.

Severe collapses were suffered by two of the strikers.

To prevent Irish volunteers from marching in the funeral procession of Fitzgerald when his body was removed from the jail military soldiers and an armed car followed the hearse.

In the streets great indignation was expressed at the military display and seething excitement prevailed.

Volunteers in long rows lined Patrick street to make a path for the funeral.

London Oct. 19.—The condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork was unchanged today. The 68th day of his hunger strike and the Irish self-determination league bulletin today.

The Lord Mayor's memory seems to be weakening. His condition is not as he is conscious and determined. His sight is affected and doctors fear signs of scurvy are developing.

MILL CITY
DIVORCES ON
THE INCREASEMeeting of District Bench Will Be Held to Consider
Situation

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 19.—Divorces in Minneapolis have so multiplied that the situation will be brought to the attention of the entire Minneapolis county district court bench.

A meeting of the full bench will be held Oct. 30 when the question of a domestic relations court will be presented by Judge H. D. Dickinson, senior member of the bench as the only solution to the problem.

Divorce complaints are being filed almost twice as fast here as the courts are able to pass upon them and more suits of marriage dissolution have been filed and granted this year than in any other like period.

An average of slightly more than 30 divorces a month have been granted since January 1, 1920 up to the middle of October, a total of 493 complaints were filed upon. This total is divided up as follows:

January 55, February 53, March 55, April 62, May 64, June 70, September 60 and August of October 22.

During July and August when the majority of judges were on vacations, twenty-one and eighteen dissolution actions were granted respectively.

More than 800 divorce suits now are pending on the calendar according to Walter A. Ryberg, chief deputy clerk of the district court.

When shown the divorce statistics compiled by Mr. Ryberg, Judge Dickinson characterized Minneapolis as a veritable Reno.

The situation declared Judge Dickinson is becoming most acute. Not only are the legitimate divorces being doubled up but the court calendar is being swamped by illegitimate suits which are being slipped through every month.

Judge Dickinson pointed out that under existing laws for the trial of divorce actions the judges are powerless to control the condition.

It is his opinion that there is a creation in this country of a domestic relation court, said the judge. That seems to be the only reasonable remedy for the situation. Litigants are not so quick to rush into courts for a divorce if they know their domestic life is to become the subject of investigation.

CHILL SPREADS OVER ENGLAND AS
COAL STRIKE IS MADE COMPLETEPremier Lloyd George Expected to Go to Parliament with State-

No Rioting is Reported

London Oct. 19.—Premier Lloyd George is expected to make declarations today at the opening of the session of the British parliament relative to the situation resulting from the strike of coal miners which began Saturday and measures taken by the government to meet the crisis.

Laborite members of the house of commons have been for several days in conference with leaders of the miners' federation and other great labor organizations and London was hopeful that they had reached some decision which would tend to bring about a solution of questions that brought about the walk-out of the coal diggers.

Great Britain's coal mining industry has been almost completely paralyzed by the strike. Reports of idle pits come from all coal fields in England.

COAL SHORTAGE IN EAST WILL

That Production Increases
Rapidly

Washington Oct. 19.—Bituminous coal production has reached the 12,000,000 ton weekly total which the National Coal association recently declared was necessary to insure against any shortage of the winter supply.

The geological survey announced today that the output during the week ending October 9 was 12,075,000 tons, an increase of 705,000 tons over production of the week before.

The average weekly output for the four weeks ending October 9 was placed at 11,728,250 tons compared with an average weekly production of approximately 10,500,000 tons.

Total production of anthracite coal for the week ended October 9 was estimated at 1,847,000 tons as compared with 1,804,000 tons for the preceding week. Shipments were reported to have been the largest since July.

With the achievement of the twelve million ton output a week, the entire coal situation has appreciably eased up, a statement issued tonight by the National Coal association said.

Acute shortages in immediate supply in the middle west and in other parts of the country are now being met in such a way as to indicate that the worst of the coal shortage is over.

The movement of bituminous coal to the Great Lakes for train shipment to northwestern points, has now reached the point where the four thousand car a day schedule has been realized.

The supreme court has before it today briefs in a case in which advocates of the Nonpartisan league are backing an assault on the law providing that county officers shall be nominated by a nonpartisan ballot.

The plaintiff is John P. Luhn and the defendant is L. L. Hughes, county auditor of Stark county. Luhn presented petitions and demanded that he be put on the ballot for county sheriff. This was denied by the county auditor and was sustained by Judge Crawford.

The supreme court is asked to decide whether or not under the law providing that the two highest candidates for office shall be candidates for election prevents a man from being put on the ticket by petition. Nonpartisan leaguers are understood to be backing Luhn.

St. Louis Oct. 19.—Five days before the coming election on Thursday Oct. 23, complete records of the collections and disbursements of the Republican and Democratic parties will be submitted to the public.

The senate committee appointed to investigate campaign expenditures has directed the chairmen of the national senate congressional committee on the two parties to file such reports at Chicago on that date. The reports are to cover all activities since the party chairmen testified at a committee hearing at Chicago several weeks ago.

In telegrams addressed to Will Hays, Republican chairman, and George White, chairman of the Democratic committee, the committee asked for lists of subscriptions in excess of $100, detailed figures on expenditures and also a list of all pledges, promises or undeveloped Senatorial funds specifically asked for the latter an effort to learn whether any arrangement had been made to meet the needs which it has been reported that parties will face after the election.

Meet in Chicago
The senate committee recessed after yesterday's session and does not expect to meet again until after November 2. It provided the party chairmen agree to file the information asked for. In event they refuse or all the senators decided to meet in Chicago prior to the election and summon the chairmen of the committee.

AIRPLANES TO

Break Out

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 19.—A fleet of 29 Minnesota airplanes, ever ready to speed over the North Woods of Minnesota to photograph the forests showing locations of fires and with flight observers trained in map making to sketch the dangerous forest sections that likely will be one of the great benefits to accrue to the state from the establishment of an aerial fire patrol squadrons in the state.

W. L. Cox, state forester, and Lieutenant W. C. Giese of the staff of Adjutant General W. F. Rhinow, are agreed that the airplanes can give the state's forest protection service a new and efficient method of forest patrol. Colonel Giese said to have the airplanes constantly patrolling the forest areas but Mr. Cox could not all on the government at any time that situation warrants it to have him order airplanes in his capacity as commander in chief of the military forces of the state.

Efficient Aid
Mr. Cox said that the airplanes would be very efficient prior to forest fires and would be valuable in sending information concerning conditions of the thirteen parties to be used if the observation squadron is established in Minnesota. It will be two squadrons, each with a pilot and an observer. The observer must be trained and experienced in sending radio messages from the planes as well as trained photographers and map makers.

Support for the idea of illustration, said Mr. Cox, that they were a fleet of about 20 planes from Duluth. An airplane could be sent out from St. Paul, unless a message back to the proper officials and men could be sent from the nearest available place before a detachment of men could be started out of Duluth. In times of necessity it would be well to have six planes that would be sufficient so that at least two could be in the air at all times.

Colonel Giese said that this close cooperation between the military and civil service could result in extinguishing fires for the forests at a slight cost to the state. The establishment of the observation and patrol squadrons of the Minnesota forest service would mean that the government would furnish all the equipment for the planes and for the building of hangars for the planes would be the only expense for the state.

QUALITY MUST BACK CAR, IS DORT POLICY

There must be quality back of performances which are being reported by Dort owners everywhere and every day and in view of the very modest advance in the last two years the company cannot lower prices, as uphold its ideals, says M. H. Ebers of the Northwestern Automotive Co. Dort dealer.

His other day, J. Alexander, of the sales company in that city with a truck or bought in 1917. He has driven it more than 20,000 miles and said that he had spent exactly 20 cents for maintenance outside of fuel and oil. This is a record, he said. He has 24 miles over muddy roads a year on the road and a half and a lot of gasoline, an average of but less than 2 1/2 miles per gallon.

Such figures prove the statement of the dealer that the cars are of the high quality and that the company is doing its best to give the customer the best value for his money.

HUNGER STRIKE RECORD PLACED AT 63 DAYS

Paris, Oct. 18.—The long hunger strike of Mayor MacSwiney of Cork has caused much discussion here as to how long it is possible for a man to fast. Dr. Bocquet has told the Paris Mide that the record is 25 days without food, set by William Granier in 1831.

"Granier had been sentenced to death and was confined in the prison of Toulouse," said Dr. Bocquet. "He had a horror of the guillotine and to save himself from death by that instrument determined to starve, which he did after 63 days."

"Many hunger strikers have lived longer than could have been expected," he went on. "There are the cases of Tanner, Succi and Merlati, the latter of whom starved for 48 days while he lost one-quarter of his weight. Taylor tells of the case of a worker who was imprisoned in a mine for 60 days without food. He lived three days after his rescue and died as a result of being excessively fed. Many janitors have refused to take food for 30, 30 or even 40 days."

Why you must wash your face every day

BECAUSE the network of tiny pores and minute glands, which constitutes what we call the skin, must be cleansed thoroughly every day. Otherwise they clog with dirt, dust and oil secretions. Then you soon have blackheads and pimples.

Wash away these poisonous secretions every day with the mild, soothing lather of Palmolive. This freshens the complexion and allows the skin to breathe.

Result, a clear complexion, a smooth complexion, a fresh, rosy complexion, a complexion blooming with the beauty of health.

(If your skin is very dry, apply a little Palmolive Cold Cream before washing. This will keep it smooth and flexible.)

BIG PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED BY BANKERS OF UNITED STATES IN THE ANNUAL MEETING IN WASHINGTON

WILSON LEAGUE WOULD PROMOTE WAR, NOT PEACE

Senator Goes Into Heart of League Covenant in New York Address

WHAT WILSON SAID

Tells of President's Own Views on Question of Using Force

New York, Oct. 19.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge attacked the League of Nations in an address here declaring that it is an alliance, and that instead of promoting the world peace it makes provision for war and will be a breeder of war.

The League, he said, is full of enforcement by armies and has little about the nations of a world court of justice. As it stands it is a menace and not a help to the peace of the world.

After discussing the League covenant particularly the provisions of Article X, Senator Lodge, speaking before the Society of Arts and Sciences contrasted it with Senator Harding's conception of the best means to promote world peace.

"He (Senator Harding) is anxious to promote the world's peace as any man who lives," Senator Lodge said. "But he is not willing to sacrifice the United States by adhering to an alliance that would mean war and not peace. He is utterly against the Wilson League as Mr. Wilson brought it from Paris."

Senator Harding's plan is to bring about under the leadership of the United States an agreement among the nations which will truly promote the peace of the world.

President's Plan

On January 22, 1917 the president presented in an address to the Senate a plan for a world peace. At that time the president had not broken with Germany, and he was planning for a peace without victory, and then for the promotion of a League. He proposed that we should adhere to a League for peace and then he said:

It will be absolutely necessary that a force be created as a guarantee of the permanency of the settlement so much greater than the force of any nation now engaged or any alliance hitherto formed or projected that no nation, or probable combination of nations could face or withstand it. If the peace presently to be made is to endure it must be a peace made secure by the organized major force of mankind.

That shows the president's conception of a League for peace, that it must be backed by the "organized major force of mankind" and that means an international force under the control of the League and with all the members of the League obliged to furnish quotas for the international force.

Armed Force

That this continued in his mind to be the dominant conception of a League for peace is shown by what he said on February 14, 1919, when he presented the finished draft of the Constitution of the League of Nations, as it was then called, to the conference. Mr. Wilson described this new international combination as "the union of wills in a common purpose, a union of wills which cannot be resisted, and which I dare say no nation will run the risk of attempting to resist."

"And then he added, 'Armed force is in the background of this program, but it is in the background, and if the moral force of the world will not suffice, the physical force of the world shall.' There can be no mistake as to what that language of the president means."

When the president met the Senate committee on foreign relations at the White House on August 10, 1919, Senator Knox asked this question: "Suppose that it is perfectly obvious and accepted that there is an external aggression against some power and suppose it is perfectly obvious and accepted that it cannot be repelled except by force of arms, would we be under any legal obligations to participate?"

The president replied: "No, sir, but we would be under an absolutely compelling moral obligation."

"A compelling obligation which is the highest obligation possible in a treaty, to do what? To use the force" of arms in the case of external aggression under Article Ten.

"Who is to apply the veto? Who is to record the veto of the United States in the council against the votes of the eight other members? Naturally the representative of the United States on the council. How is he to be appointed and selected? On this the covenant of the League is silent."

Under the covenant of the League as it stands, the president of the United States is to send a representative to the council and nobility question his credentials. That representative so appointed by the president as a personal agent could involve us in war under Article 10. "The compelling moral obligation would then apply and congress would have no authority to give the formal approval and make the necessary appropriation."

But even supposing that the president nominated a representative to the council to the Senate and it was confirmed by the Senate. He would be the president's selection and if a question involving war were to arise he would undoubtedly vote as the president directed.

In other words, we come back to the proposition that without such minute precautions as were taken in the proposed reservation one man could involve the United States in war in a matter of that one man is the president. Under the constitution the congress alone can declare war, and yet under this alliance called a League the president would have power to involve the country in war before congress could act.

"The menace to the United States involved in Article 10 cannot be overrated. We meet it with a reservation and all that reservation did was to relieve the United States from any obligation under Article X and left us absolutely free to refuse to fulfill the obligation imposed by the first sentence of the article if the congress law fit to do so. This reservation the president cannot and should not accept. He would not permit any reservations to Article 10, in my judgment no American who is not willing to have American soldiers and sailors sent to any country in the world to fight and die in a war which does not concern them could possibly accept a treaty which contained Article X as it stands with its fatal and intolerable obligation."

BANKERS' TALK SHOP

Washington, Oct. 19.—It is a study of federal taxes, operation of the bankers in solving the problems of the railroads and economy in government and private expenditures were urged in the annual report of the United States Bankers' Association, which was presented today at the opening session of the association's 40th convention.

Other recommendations made by Mr. Hawes were that the Transportation Act be amended so that bankers and business men could become directors of railroads that agriculture and foreign trade be encouraged and that steps be taken to relieve the present industrial unrest.

More Business

Taking up the tax question Mr. Hawes said the need was not only for a reduction of federal taxes but also for a most careful supervision of the expenditures of the proceeds of the taxes.

"A slogan recently coined," he said "is appealing: 'More business in government, less government in business.'"

Mr. Hawes declared that "no tax itself should interfere with the accumulation of wealth, or the development of the industrial life of the nation."

"Any tax system which discourages savings, which discounts accumulation of capital, is to be deplored," he said, "primarily by society at large and not particularly by the one in whose legal title its ownership rests."

Financial Victory

Mr. Hawes hailed the enactment of the Transportation Act as "a distinct financial victory." He declared that a vast sum of money was needed for the railroads and that it could be made available only through the co-operation of the financiers of the country. Encouraging the investing public and guiding their judgment.

"The passage of the Transportation Act," he said, "has taken railroad securities out of the highly speculative field and stabilized conditions so that just returns on investment may be received and proper service rendered to the nation."

Bankers and business men, he continued, should be permitted to serve on the boards of directors of the railroads, regardless of their dealings with the railroads, but they should be charged with full responsibility in their duties.

Mr. Hawes sounded an optimistic note regarding industrial unrest. He expressed the opinion that there was needless alarm that America would see changes in its industrial society similar to those undertaken in some other countries.

"With a prospective decrease in prices and increase in the disposition of industrial and labor leaders to recognize their mutual obligations and duties, both to each other and the public," Mr. Hawes continued, "we may reasonably look forward, without alarm, to a better adjustment of the forces of labor and capital."

Labor by fomenting strikes encouraging disagreement with employers is, in fact, striking at the heart of its own future progress, and impairing the prosperity of the country. Capital should recognize the results of the laborer's better working conditions and wages in ratio to the production and investment. Every man should be free to work out his own salvation and not be bound by the shackles of organizations to his detriment.

Pre-War Level

Declaring that production in the country is now somewhat above the pre-war level and showing indications of improvement, Mr. Hawes said the real difficulty has been in unbalanced production. The diversion of productive forces into certain restricted channels demanded by the war still is having its effect, he continued, and the nation has not yet been able to re-align these forces so that the supply and demand of goods are normally uniform.

"Increased production," Mr. Hawes went on to say, "is not nearly so much a cause for concern as is more economical consumption. The orgy of foolish extravagance, the speculative consumption which has prevailed in the United States and is yet too largely evident must cease if we are to obtain a permanently strong position in world trade."

In recommending the enforcement and development of agriculture, Mr. Hawes declared that all bankers and business men should know that less than 10 cents of every $100 spent by the government last year was expended for the development of agriculture.

"It is the banker's duty as a citizen and financial to realize and encourage this source of our wealth, to lend counsel and assistance and to regard the farm in its true importance to our economic existence."

Stressing the importance of the nation's foreign trade, Mr. Hawes said that without improving the requirements of American industry and business the bankers must find a means of extending liberal credit for foreign trade without further inflating the American credit structure. He suggested that this be done by interest in the investing public in securities properly provided.

"Our future foreign trade possibilities lie largely with the saving American," said he.

Of the operation of the federal reserve system, Mr. Hawes said: "Steadily the process of pushing out war paper and substituting commercial paper is going on and shortly we may expect that the new circulation will be placed as intended on live commercial paper and gold."

Elderly People Need This In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that 'they are all alike.' That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowel muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Mendota, Illinois. Every body now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

he said, was merely for an investigation as to operations on the board. I am now awaiting action on that request and believe an investigation will show some startling facts and conditions."

Referring to the recent slumps of wheat and cotton, Governor Allen said:

If it is shown these price fluctuations were due to speculation, cold deliberate gambling, and not conditions of supply and demand I will urge abolition of the board. In any event I will fight illegal gambling in necessities.

"It is impossible to conceive how various forms of gambling in the state and nation should be made illegal and yet become perfectly legitimate when speculators and gamblers are betting on the prices of the food we must eat and the clothes we must wear."

Release for Women who Suffer

The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ill-effects to their sex is almost beyond belief. Yet there is hardly a town or city in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These Two Women Tell of Their Experience.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my knees on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies I had read of. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. ## CITY NOTIFIED BOOSTER PUMP TO BE CUT OFF

Hughes Electric Company Says
Water Company Didn't Pay
Bill—Water Co. Reply

The Hughes Electric company served notice on the city commission, board of railroad commissioners and the Bismarck Water Supply company that it will cease to furnish power for the operation of the booster pump of the water company, used in pumping water from the reservoir to the city, on Oct. 20 at 10 a. m. unless the water company pays a bill the electric company alleges is past due.

The water company's reply is a declaration that it tendered the correct amount of the water bill and warning the people that the responsibility, in case of fire loss, as a result of the discontinuance of booster pump service, would not rest with it.

The water company declares that the correct amount of the September bill is $60, which it says it tendered and says the Hughes company claims the correct amount is $105.

The notice of the Hughes company set out the rates fixed by the railroad commissioner for electric power, and says that the water company has refused to pay the rates or make any payments.

The electric company claims it has a rule to discontinue service to consumers who have not paid their bills. The electric company says that service will be discontinued unless the bill is paid and the water company pay in advance in the future the minimum monthly charge.

The commission, at its meeting, ordered that Main street be graveled from Washington west to the top of the hill, where it strikes Thayer street along the N. P. right of way.

Cement sidewalks were ordered on Thayer, between Hannifan and North Park streets. Complaint was made by taxpayers against the conducting of a dairy in the city limits by Herman Ode, on 15th street. The same taxpayers also complained of a fire hazard on 14th street.

There is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge of a woman's neatness, or good taste. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good shampoo. You can enjoy the very best by getting some canthrox from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Dandruff excess oil, and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

WILSON GIVEN FRENCH DENIAL OF "MEDDLING"

Charge Says That No One Authorized to Speak to Harding.
Says, Official

Washington, Oct. 19.—Assurances have been given the state department by Count Debarin, French charge here, that the French government has not given authority to anyone to approach Senator Harding with suggestions that the Republican nominee lead the way in the formation of a world association of nations.

The French charge told the undersecretary of state, Davis, that he was sure that the French government had delegated no spokesman to act for it in negotiations with Senator Harding either "formally or informally, officially or unofficially."

The announcement of the visit of the French charge to the state department yesterday afternoon was made today by Mr. Davis, who said that while Count Debarin had delivered no formal reply to the American note of inquiry to the French government he assumed that the talk was the result of previous negotiations.

HARDING REPLY
Marion, O., Oct. 19.—Replying to an inquiry from President Wilson, Senator Harding wrote the White House last night that although France had sent her "spokesmen" to him informally asking America to lead the way for an association of nations, the incident had not involved the French government in any violation of international proprieties.

The senator declared that in his reference to the subject in a speech at Green Castle, Ind., he had sought to convey the thought that there had come to him "those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people." He added that his words "could not be construed to say that the French government has sent anybody to me."

Referring to Mr. Wilson's suggestion of propriety in a foreign nation approaching "a private citizen," on such a subject, Senator Harding pointed out that he is a member of the foreign relations committee, as well as a nominee for the presidency and suggested that "an informal expression to me is rather more than that to a private citizen."

Incorrectly Quoted
Senator Harding's letter, sent in reply to one from the president asking whether the senator had been correctly quoted in his Green Castle speech follows:

"Dear Mr. President:
"I have before me a press copy of your letter to me of this date though I am not in receipt of the original copy. I am glad to make a prompt reply."

"It is very gratifying that you hesitate to draw inferences without my assurance that I am correctly quoted. The quotations as reported in your letter is not exact. The notes of the stenographer reporting my remarks quote me as saying 'France has sent her spokesmen to me informally, an association of nations.'"

"I am sure my words could not be construed to say that the French government has sent anybody to me. The thought I was trying to convey was that there had come to me those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people, but nothing could suggest the French government having violated the proprieties of international relations. Official France would never seek to go over your high offices as our chief executive to appeal to the American people or any portion thereof."

"I can see no impropriety in private citizens of France, or in Americans deeply friendly to France, expressing to me their understanding of sentiment in that friendly republic."

Send Public Person
It is not improper enough to discuss, perhaps, but I very respectfully urge that an informal expression to me is rather more than that to a private citizen. I hold a place as a member of the foreign relations committee of the United States senate, which is charged with certain constitutional authority in dealing with foreign relations, and I am necessarily conscious that I am the nominee of the Republican party of president of our republic.

"In the combination of these two positions it ought not be unreasonably that some very devoted friends of a new and better relationship among nations, no matter whence they come, should wish to advise me relating to aspirations to co-operate with our own republic in attaining that high purpose. Let me assure you again of the observance of all the proprieties and again assert that the French government has maintained that great respect for your position to which I myself subscribe."

"With great respect, I am,
"Very truly,
"WARREN G. HARDING."

Protect Your Homes Against Fire

The Hughes Electric Company, which furnishes power to operate the booster fire pumps for the Bismarck Water Supply Company has threatened to cripple the water supply of the city for fire purposes by turning off the current at the booster pumps tomorrow, Wednesday, October 20, at 10:00 o'clock A. M.

The Bismarck Water Supply Co.

hereby warns the people of the city to take adequate precautions against fire and to have on hand some means of fighting fires should any break out.

The Hughes Electric Company claims that the Bismarck Water Supply Company owes it $105 for current to operate the booster pumps for the month of September 1920. The true amount of the water company's indebtedness is $60, according to the rates fixed by the board of railroad commissioners and the contract of the Hughes Electric Company with the Bismarck Water Supply Company.

The following notice threatening to turn off power to operate the booster pumps was served on the Bismarck Water Supply company Saturday, October 16:

NOTICE!

Bismarck Water Supply Company;
Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of North Dakota;
City of Bismarck;
And the Board of City Commissioners thereof;

TAKE NOTICE:

1. That the undersigned, Hughes Electric Company, has been and is furnishing to the above named Bismarck Water Supply Company, electric power to operate a booster pump for increasing the water pressure for fire service, such pump being located on the main supply line of said Bismarck Water Supply Company, between the reservoir and the city.
2. That on the 30th day of July, 1920, the board of railroad commissioners of the state of North Dakota, promulgated an order prescribing the rates which should be charged by the undersigned for power furnished by it to consumers.

3. That since the taking effect of such order the said Bismarck Water Supply Company has wholly failed and refused to pay to the undersigned the rates aforesaid, or to make any payment whatsoever for the power furnished by the undersigned to operate such booster pump.

4. That by reason of the premises, the undersigned will, on the 20th day of October, 1920, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, discontinue the electric service for the booster pump of such Water Supply Company, by discontinuing the same, unless prior to such time the said Bismarck Water Supply Company shall pay in full for all the service rendered since the promulgation of the order aforesaid, in accordance with the terms of such order and conformably to the rates thereby prescribed, and that no further service will be rendered unless said Company shall deposit for payment in advance the minimum amount prescribed for such service per month by said order of the Board of Railroad Commissioners.

Dated this 16th day of October, 1920.

HUGHES ELECTRIC COMPANY,
By E. A. HUGHES,

"A skin you love to touch"

You, too, can have this charm

No matter what other charms you have, they count for little unless you have the greatest of all charms—a clear, fresh skin.

An authority on the skin has said: "Whatever your difficulty is, you can remedy the trouble, if you will only give your skin intelligent care and attention."

The following treatment brings the blood to the surface and stimulates the small muscular fibres. Begin it tonight and see how it will improve your skin.

Just before retiring, wash your face and neck with plenty of Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. After rinsing your face with warm water, rub a fresh lather of Woodbury's into your skin, using an upward and outward motion. Do this until the skin feels just a little sensitive. Then rinse the skin well in warm water, then in cold, finishing by rubbing for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Always be careful to dry the skin thoroughly.

Make this treatment a regular habit, and in a much shorter time than you would imagine, your skin will take on the greater loveliness that it can have.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25-cent cake will last a month or six weeks.

(Established 1878)

CAN JAPAN COLONIZE?

Japan's population must find more territory. That is the peremptory argument of the Japanese government. But, the problem of over-population is as old as written history. There have always been two ways at attempting the solution. The first way has been to open up new territory. That is to say, to colonize inferior parts of the world and raise the colonies to a higher level of progress.

The second way has been to seize upon the territory of a superior civilization and to live as parasites upon the alien race. In the history of the world, only four nations have been instinctively successful as colonizers. They are ancient Greece and ancient Rome; modern Britain and modern America. All the other nations have either been indifferent pioneers or have become frankly parasitic afield.

Japan has attempted to colonize Korea, Formosa and parts of Manchuria. Nowhere has success attended her methods. Militarism has dominated her policies; and no successful colonizer has ever ruled by the sword. The other method of expansion remains. Japan looks longingly in its direction.

If the superior civilizations of America, Canada and Australia were opened to the Japanese overflow population, the problem would be solved for Japan. But, the superior civilizations would be brought down to Japan's level. That is history's consistent evidence.

Japan's urgent insistence upon her right to send her people where she pleases is a policy full of danger. It is playing with fire. Japan must know this, for the Japanese elder statesmen are very shrewd. Nevertheless, the game continues. Is it because the Japanese government realizes its people have not yet acquired the pioneer spirit? Is it because the elder statesmen have become convinced Japan can retain her medieval absolutism only by invading lands where the way has been made smooth for them? It is time to ask Japan these questions.

Iowa claims that California's 44 per cent gain in population is largely made up of Hawkeye farmers.

THE DICTATOR

Woman directs the consumption of 85 per cent of the wealth of the country, according to figures compiled by Mrs. Henrietta Calvin, specialist in home economics of the Federal Bureau of Education.

Eighty-five per cent of the industry of the nation busies itself with those things that minister, directly or indirectly to the comfort, convenience, pleasure or taste of women.

Not only does industry devote the greater part of its energies to making the things women herself uses, but also to the innumerable food and household articles the purchase of which helps less man places almost exclusively in the hands of women.

Man eats, but it is woman who directs what he shall eat. He has little to say in the matter. The wife goes to the grocer's and, looking over the stock, determines what he shall eat that evening. It follows, therefore, that manufacturers of food products is governed, as to quality and style of his goods, by his desire to please her who, as far as he is concerned, is the ultimate consumer.

A man goes to buy an automobile. He may prefer a certain car because of its engine. But, in the end, the machine he buys is the one selected by his wife on account of the lines of its exterior and the home-like comfort of its interior. Consequently, no small part of the business of an automobile designer is to turn out such machines as will delight the eye of her who is the supreme court in all issues related to household purchases.

The furniture-maker, the house-builder, the textile-weaver, are concerned endlessly with patterns, devices and designs pleasing to HER. Woman proposes as well as disposes, while man only pays the bills.

Woman, in fact, says Mrs. Calvin, is the controlling factor in production, since she directs all but 15 per cent of the consumption. It is much more simple to make a list of the industries in which woman has no influence than to call the roll of the innumerable industries that are governed in part or in whole by her dictatorship in matters of style and taste.

Universal woman's suffrage is merely an extension of her authority to a field that woman's influence will improve, just as the material products of industry are constantly being improved to meet the progressing standards of good taste and quality as dictated by woman.

IMMIGRANTS

Immigration during the war, was largely suspended. This was true both of human and other immigrants. With the return of peace the gates were thrown open, and the tide is high again; higher than ever. This also is true at the Ellis Island of furs and feathers. New and strange animals are coming to America to make their home here. Most of them come unwillingly. But they are coming just the same.

The world is being combed for the American zoo and circus.

Among the recent arrivals are the crested porcupine, the largest wart hok ever taken out of the wilds of Africa, the greater kudu, the white-headed sea eagle, the eared vulture, the springback, one of the almost extinct Chapman zebras, and the big-eared fox.

It probably isn't true, as reported, that in the recent primaries the blonds voted the blue ballots and the brunets chose pink.

Dispatches from Constantinople say the sultan is sick. Goodness gracious, can't they ever get a healthy man to take that job!

CUT PARTY POLITICS

Cut out your party politics in North Dakota. We are more concerned in this state in getting a change of administration for the better than we are of electing a president. North Dakota is in bad shape and needs united effort on the part of every democrat, every republican, every man in the state, and we mean the women, too, who has the welfare of the people at heart, to get behind Hon. J. F. T. O'Connor for Governor. We need a period of sanity and business judgment in the capital at Bismarck by our state officials—men who can work for the good of all the people instead of the needs of the selected and hand picked few. It is a time for sacrifice of personal, political ambition, to be cast aside in the interests of good government. We want some one for instance in charge of the Bank of North Dakota who is unafraid of the light of public scrutiny—who is willing to allow a state institution handling hundreds of millions of dollars of our funds to be examined. No man who is straight can object to that. We want a state banker who will keep the money of the people of North Dakota in North Dakota for the needs of the farmers of North Dakota and not for the use of the big business of the east or for the use of political machines like unto the nonpartisan league as it is now operated. It is easy to get money from the Bank of North Dakota for political purposes because five nonpartisan leaders in Barnes county have secured on their notes $2,500 apiece to be used by Mr. Townley for political purposes—but there is no money at Bismarck in our wonderful bank for the use of the needy farmers of the state. It is a rotten condition and a crime. The people of this state need a business governor in the executive chair instead of a figure head and a tool. That is what we have had for the past four years. A subservient, cringing tool of the great arch conspirator, A. C. Townley.—Valley City Times Record.

POPULATION COMPARISONS

Minnesota makes an excellent showing in census population returns. Its gain is approximately 15 per cent in ten years, compared with 8 per cent for Iowa, 12 per cent for North Dakota, 8.9 per cent for South Dakota, 12.8 per cent for Wisconsin, and 30.5 per cent for Michigan.

The Michigan exhibit is phenomenal, but it is due in very large part to the abnormal industrial growth of Detroit.

It scarcely can be questioned by sociologists that the growth of Minnesota has been much more healthful than that of Michigan. Considerably more than a half million of the 857,040 increase in Michigan is credited to Detroit. That city is crowded beyond the point of either comfort or social welfare.

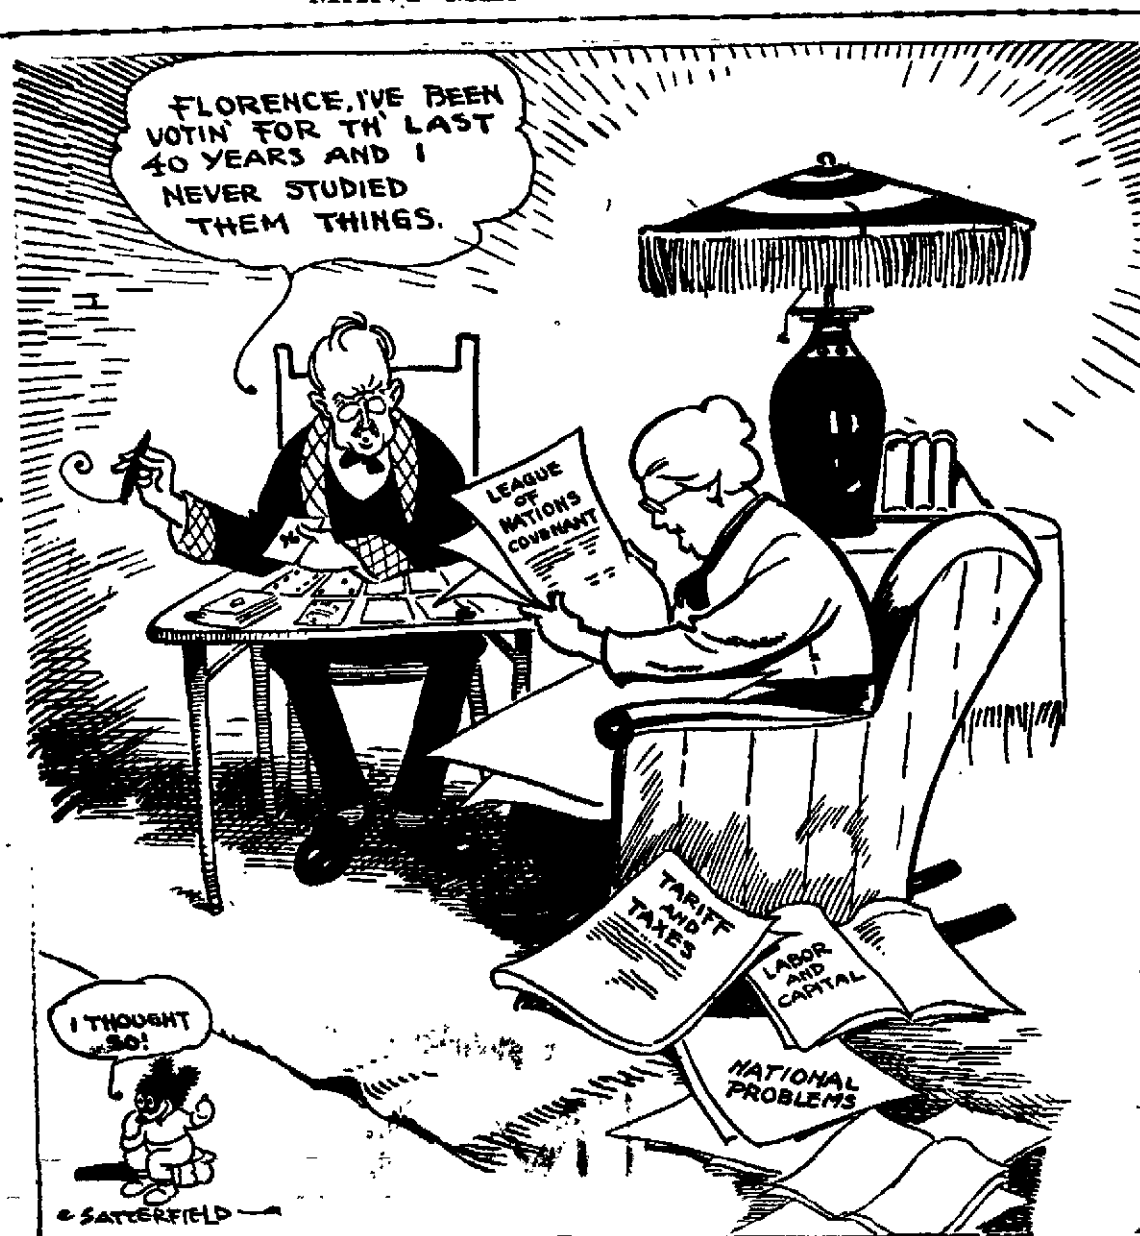

In Minnesota the increase in population for the whole state is 310,633. Of this increase about 120,000 is in the three cities of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, leaving a well distributed growth of 190,000 in the rest of the state.

Wisconsin's population increase is not so large as that of Minnesota either in integers or percentage. Its gain was 297,970, or nearly 13,000 smaller than that of Minnesota. Minnesota's rural gain—in all places except the three larger cities mentioned—is approximately 12,000 larger than the total gain for Iowa, cities and country.

North Dakota is now 61,842 ahead of South Dakota in total population, due to an increase of 12 per cent, compared to South Dakota's 8.9 per cent.

All over the country the census figures reflect influences of the war in the segregating population. Detroit, however, felt a remarkable impulse from the automobile business even before the war. Its growth is in some respects, the most striking feature of the 10-year period.—Minneapolis Tribune

MANY MEN ARE THAT WAY

The Experiences Of Hiram Wise

INTRODUCTION

"Hiram Wise" is a farmer of the old school who believes in the "emancipation of humanity." Being a forward looking man, he is one of the first to join the Nonpartisan league when its organizers visited his community. While his varied experiences are told in story form, practically every one of them has been duplicated in real life.

"Bobs" speech has been written in dialect in order to carry out the general idea. It is "Hiram" who is doing the talking, telling the reader of his experiences with the Nonpartisan league in emancipating North Dakota.

—The Author.

Chapter X

Learning the Truth

Wal, Mary Ann, sez I what's the matter with the book, somemow you don't seem to like it, judging by your actshuns. Like it, sez she. Hiram Joshua Wise, if any one had told me a book o' this kind should ever come in my house I would o' called 'em to their face. But to know it is bein' sent out in school library is too much.

But, sez I, gettin' more an' more puzzled, you ain't told me yet what's the matter with it, Mary Ann. Remember I didn't look at it, just picked it out 'cause it said "Lovely Ethel" in front. No "lovely Ethel," said Mary Ann, but love and ethics. Hiram, I cannot do justice to my thoughts by telling you that it's the most foul, vile slander against womanhood, true an' pure, but it's as near as I can come to expressin' 'em. In short, it is written by a woman notorious for her free love teachin's. You mean, sez I, yes sez she, all that can worse it is a disgrace to any decent minded person, no matter who they are, an' how it come to be placed in a school library is more than I can understand. But I am goin' to find out.

Rosy Cheeks &amp; Satin Skin

Because of her rosy cheeks and satin skin a woman attracts the admiration of all men. When the young woman peers in her glass, she may see pimples and blotches and she immediately goes to the drug store for paint, powders and beauty creams, when she should go there for a blood medicine and stomach alternative known as "Golden Medical Discovery."

This vegetable tonic and blood alternative clears the skin, beautifies it, increases the blood supply and the circulation, while pimples, boils and eruptions vanish quickly. Ask your nearest druggist for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form or send 10c for trial package of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

Finds Unexpected Sometimes Happens

"I suffered for ten years with stomach trouble and doctored away a lot of money before I found a medicine that was a real benefit to me. Since taking one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy 14 weeks ago, I have had more real joy of living than I had in 10 years before." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists.

find out, sez I, an' that mighty quick. Huestle an' make dinner Mary Ann, an' I'll go over to the persons an' we'll talk this thing over. Gosh, when I thought o' such books bein' sent out an' read by innocent little children my hair riz right on top o' my head, an' my blood biled. Somemow wuz goin' fer this outrage or my name wuzn't Hiram Joshua Wise.

So Mary Ann hustled dinner alone, I wrapped up the two books an' hitched up o' Baldy (the filver bein' out o' commission) an' tied him by the rack while I cut 'em 'tatered off. Rev. Bigger's astonishment can be better imagined than expressed when he found out about the books an' had examined 'em himself.

"Yea," he sez, "I have often heard o' both o' these authors, one is a socialist atheist an' the other a woman I consider lost to all sense o' decency. As you say, Brother Wise, it is a mystery how these books got into our school library, for surely no one would want 'em there by intention. I wuz goin' to call up the members o' the school board an' ask 'em to get 'em out o' there thoroughlv. There may be store to this than appears on the surface. I have heard a lot about the persons at present employed at our Capitol, but I would advise we got at this with caution, in order not to cause any discomfort, if there has been a mistake made. So he called up all the school board, on the telephone an' said a matter o' importance had come up, which needed immejet attenshun an' would they all meet in the west s' hool house at seven o'clock that evenin'. So promptly at seven o'clock the school board arrived an' Rev. Bigger cum over too. We tho't it best to look over the books in the library an' see if ther wuz any more o' this nature. An' shore enough, we found three an' socialist, an' one on Bolshevism, the rest were on innocent subjects. After wrappin' these books up, we decided it would be best to let about three o' the prominent residents o' our district go down to Bismarck an' call on the fellows who was responsible fer sendin' out the books to comfort. So Jason Trumbull, Rev. Bigger an' me wuz selected to do the job, bein' considered the most prominent men residin' outside o' Hennocet Center. Jason said he'd call at my house in his car an' then we'd get Rev. Bigger an' all go down together an' find out why that library commission wuz sendin' out books fer our children to read that wuzn't no wise fittin' to be seen in a decent God fearin' man's home.

THE FARM'S INDUCEMENTS

By FLORENCE BORNER

What inducement does the farm hold out to the young man just entering his life's work? Long hours, little or no pay and few if any enjoyments. Is it any wonder the farm children are educating themselves away from the farm instead of toward it, and that it is becoming harder every year to secure farm help?

Most business men know when they go into a certain line of work that they will make a profit. They have the privilege of setting a price on their goods that will entitle them to a certain percentage of gain. Unless they could do this they would not care to risk their money in a business venture—and who could blame them?

But how is it with the farmer? Is he assured of this protection also, or must he trust to luck? When the farmer tills his land and sows his crops he has no assurance of harvest. A crop he trusts to his Maker to send the sunshine and the rain, and he trusts to Providence not to send the prices down to where he must sell at a loss.

We have all heard of the Casino and other gambling resorts but the business of farming, as at present conducted is the biggest gamble on earth. Take the gambling out of farming and you will find more and more men who are willing to assume the natural risks, but as long as a farmer has no certainty that he will receive a living wage for what he produces, it will become more difficult every year to find men willing to produce the nation's food. Most business men look forward to a few weeks of vacation each summer, when they can leave their business cares far behind and enjoy themselves in new and unfamiliar environment. Variety is the spice of life, and when they return to take up their office duties they feel like harking in and working at the harder, because they have had a vacation and enjoyed every minute of it.

But how is it with the farmer? He gets absolutely no vacation from his labor, that is if he is depending on the farm for a living. During the time of the city man's vacation he is kept busy from morning till night, it is his busiest season. The only vacation the Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache, I had a dull ache across my back and at times I would get dizzy and was nervous and tired out. I knew something would have to be done to check the trouble and as I had been reading about Doan's Kidney Pills being so good, I sent for a box and began using them. They soon brought relief. I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

$8,000 PLANT TO GO INTO $50,000 PAPER COMPANY

The State Record Publishing company has been issued a certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state. The capitalization of the company is placed at $50,000. It publishes one of the local league papers.

The high capitalization was a surprise. Bill Prater entered into a contract to purchase the defunct Public Opinion, a league paper which failed, for $8,000, half of which was in assumed obligations, and the remaining amount being perhaps enough to cover other debts. The league paper announced that it had bought the Public Opinion, so it is presumed that Prater will renege the plant to the State Record Publishing company. The capitalization at $50,000 followed, but the price that will be paid Prater for the property he bought is not known.

The State Record Publishing company is called a co-operative organization, provides no individual may own more than 50 shares, provides in its articles that it may take up the stock of any stockholder who brings, or permits his name to be used in an action against it; prohibits anyone from becoming a member of the corporation except by consent of the board of managers. Directors are H. W. Volz, E. A. Trygg, Fred Josephson, C. K. Gummerson, H. P. Knappson is secretary.

PUBLIC OPPOSES

GOV'T OPERATION

Canvass of 5,154 Editors Shows 4,466 Communities Against Socialistic Experiment.

OPPOSITION GROWING

Eighty-seven Per Cent in 1920 as Against 83 Per Cent in 1919

Think Public is Opposed to Radicalism.

The American public is more intensely opposed to Government operation than it was a year ago, according to the newspaper editors of the country. Out of 5,154 editors replying to a questionnaire sent out by the Press Service Company of New York, 4,466, or 86 per cent, gave it as their judgment that the people of their communities were overwhelmingly against the Government competing in business with its own citizens.

In 1919 the Press Service Company conducted a similar canvass of editors on the government operation of railroads. That questionnaire showed that 83 per cent of the editors considered their communities against Government operation of public utilities.

Apparently, then, if editors estimate public opinion accurately, that opinion in a year, considered by communities, has swung 3 per cent farther away from socialistic experiments.

Eleven Million Circulation.

The combined circulation of the papers whose editors replied is 11,425,817, which means, according to the usual estimated ratio between circulation and readers, a constituency of at least 44,000,000. And this constituency is pretty evenly scattered throughout the country, no considerable section of any state being unrepresented.

The estimate of opinion based on this thoroughly diffused 44 per cent of the country's population may, therefore, be considered a fair representation of the people as

BAN JOHNSON SUPPORTERS FACE OUSTING FROM BIG LEAGUES

Five Clubs of American League
Given Until November 1, to Accept New Plan.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Owners of five American baseball league clubs—men who have supported Ban Johnson, president of the league, in several controversies this season and in past seasons have until Nov. 1 the opportunity of joining the other three club owners of the league and the entire eight of the National league in the reorganization of baseball, or face the prospect of being ousted from major league play.

Representatives of all National league baseball clubs and three American league clubs, New York, Chicago and Boston, today were on record favoring abrogation of the national agreement between professional leagues with the national commission abolished, and a civilian tribunal of three men not financially interested in the game in complete control.

Yesterday's conference of more than nine hours closed its work with resolutions adopted last night proposing complete reorganization of major league baseball.

The chairman of the proposed tribunal would receive $25,000 a year and the other members would receive $10,000. The tribunal would be supreme and there would be no appeal. The agreement would be in force 25 years.

BASEBALL PROBE RESUMED TODAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The Cook county grand jury investigating the baseball scandal does not expect further testimony implicating major league players in gambling and game "throwing" but will devote its sessions to procuring evidence against the men alleged to have "fixed" the 1919 world's series by bringing Chicago American league players to lose games to Cincinnati, according to a statement by Hartley Replogle, prosecutor. In addition to coaching baseball, Pratt will aid in coaching the Michigan football squad, adding one more to the big staff which is aiding Head Coach Fielding H. Yost in his comeback campaign at Ann Arbor.

While Pratt's reputation has been made as big league ball players, he was better known in the South in his college days as a football star at the University of Alabama. He played on the teams of 1907, 08 and 09.

HUGH JENNINGS OFFERED 2 JOBS

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 19.—Hughie Jennings, former manager of the Detroit American league baseball club, who returned, denied reports he is to manage the New York Americans. ## Be Young In Body, Mind and Looks Despite Your Years

How often you have wished that you could indulge in the strenuous exercise of out door sports with the vigor and enthusiasm of youth! But the end of the week finds you all in—you are tired, listless and lack the energy to go out for a vigorous walk or a round of the links—or any other exercise that requires much physical exertion. Many a man, even in his middle forties, has a vague feeling that he is "getting old"—and at a time when he should be at his very best physically. And he is growing old, not in the sense that the years are pressing heavily upon him—but in the sense that his vital forces are wasting away faster than Nature replaces the worn out tissues.

Thousands—yes millions—of people find themselves in this condition early in life. And there is no excuse for it. You can check that tendency to grow old. You can carry your youth with its joys and enthusiasm into your 70's and 80's. But you must give Nature all the help you can. The best assistance you can find—assistance of a sound, constructive character is in the use of

Carrying On

THE refining of petroleum has been revolutionized during the past ten years. Otherwise the present use of automotive machinery would be impossible.

In 1910 the average yield of gasoline from crude was 11 percent, while in 1919 this average had risen to about 26 percent, without in any way, impairing the quality of the product.

This tremendous advance was the direct result of applying the findings of scientific workers to the problems of industry, and in this work the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part.

The chemists and technical experts who have charge of the manufacturing activities of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have been pioneers in the scientific refining of crude oil.

Their success is attested by the fact that the Company has been able to produce an ever-increasing volume of gasoline from the petroleum available.

The gasoline problem is important, but it can and will be solved by individual initiative, stimulated by fair and reasonable competition.

In the solving of this problem, the interests of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), the manufacturer of automotive machinery and the public are one—greatly increased production is essential.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is straining every fibre of its highly specialized organization to increase the quantity of gasoline which may be taken from the crude—to maintain the high standard of quality it has always insisted on, and to do this without disturbing the output of other useful and necessary refined products of petroleum which it must supply.
